

VALE.

Our dear Aunt Nin is no longer with us. We heard with sadness on Tuesday 14th October, 1986 that she had passed away in Hospital after a period of ill health.

Born on Norfolk on 23rd February 1899, Anna Maria Christian was one of the 6 children of Guildford James Adams and Amy Caroline (nee Christian) and was educated on Norfolk, going to school at Kingston.

She married Benjamin Christian on 3rd December 1941.

Aunt Nin, as she was always called, was a happy housewife, very proud of her garden, a staunch member of her church and had a lovely singing voice. She had a great sense of humour and was, like most of the older generation of Norfolkers, a very warm hearted person and most hospitable to all who came to her house.

Ben deceased Aunt Nin many years ago and she carried on looking after her beautiful garden until it became too much for her.

Hydie Narrell (always called Narrell) their only family, married, and went to South Australia to live and has not been home for some years. It was good that she was able to come back to be present at the funeral, conducted by Pastor Keith Jackson.

Our sincere sympathies go to Narrell and her husband Terry and family, and to Aunt Nin's relatives and friends on Norfolk in their sadness to lose another member of the "true blue" Norfolkers leaves us all with a feeling of great loss.

..Narrell, Terry, Kevin, Julieanne and Lionel wish to express sincere thanks and gratitude to all who have served their Mother and Grand-mother (Aunt Nin) through her illness

Thanks also to everyone who helped with the funeral, for the lovely flowers and many expressions of sympathy.

...Our thoughts this week also go out to Helen McMahon who received the sad news of the sudden death of her father, Arthur Clough, on Wednesday, 15th October at Christchurch.

We understand that Mr. Clough, who was 84 years, passed away during a game of bowls on that afternoon.

Helen was able to get a seat on the plane on Thursday and has gone home to be with the family at this sad time.
